Re San Juan letter to Bureau dated 8/22/68.

Review of the indices of the Miami Office revealed numerous references to BLANCH, most of which are found in communications, copies of which are available to the San Juan Office. u

In addition to these, it was noted that Bureau airtel of 1/23/64 in the file on the SNFE provided information from the Department of Justice to the effect that U. S. Army Intelligence had an operational interest in certain members of the SNFE, including VECIANA. For the information of San Juan, it is believed that Army Intelligence no longer has any operational interest in VECIANA or other members of the SNFE and that this interest terminated with the capture of GUTIERREZ MENOYO in Cuba in January, 1965.

(u) On September 20, 1966, (S) (u) MM [1115-S] who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is personally acquainted with VECIANA, advised that VECIANA, who had been the treasurer of the SNFE, was no longer connected with the organization. (u)

(u) On October 4, 1968, MM 847-S, who is a member of the SNFE, advised that to his knowledge, VECIANA has had no connection with the SNFE for several years. This informant said that the last he had heard, VECIANA was residing in Puerto Rico and was not active in anti-CASTRO affairs. (u)
