VIEWER MAIL, PART TWO: FOR PROOF THAT SANDY HOOK WAS FAKED, JUST LOOK AT... THE TOILETS?

by Shill Murray · 4 Comments

One of the more asinine accusations leveled against me over the years has been that I cherry-pick or even flat-out fabricate silly claims to debunk in order to make Sandy Hook conspiracy theorists look stupid and/or crazy. This has always been complete nonsense as Sandy Hook conspiracy theorists have always done an excellent job of this on their own. Take for instance this excerpt of a very real, very dumb e-mail I recently received from a "Gene McClemore":

I was wondering if you had seen the crime scene photos of Sandy Hook Elementary where it involves the girls rest room. All the seats were up.

DID SANDY HOOK PARENT MARK BARDEN PLAY AN FBI AGENT ON DECEMBER 14TH, 2012?

by Shill Murray · 13 Comments

I've put a lot of effort into this site over the years, so it can be tempting to ignore a claim that I've only encountered once, in a short comment on an unrelated entry. That's especially true if it's a claim made without any substantial evidence, such as the one left by "Dave" all the way back in December of 2017:

Hey, what about this one?

<http://letsrollforums.com//imagehosting/1468358b994d29b100.jpg>. I don't think that has been debunked yet. If that's not Mark Barden, who is it?

SANDY HOOK'S PARKING LOT AND THE ADA

by Shill Murray · 10 Comments

The claim that Sandy Hook Elementary School's parking lot was not compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and as such is further evidence that the school was non-operational in December of 2012 isn't a new one, but it is relatively minor, which is one of the reasons I haven't pursued it as doggedly as usual. It's not that I haven't tried, it's just that the experts I've reached out to over the years – and I like to try and speak with actual experts whenever possible, rather than speculate wildly – never really bothered to get back to me. But I've never stopped looking for definitive answers and now, with some help from the New England ADA Center, I finally have some. My persistence – or ability to profoundly annoy, depending on who are you – finally paid off.

Let's start by taking a look at the actual claims that have made about the school's lot by some of the usual suspects...

NOAH POZNER'S BURIAL PERMIT

by Shill Murray · 1 Comment

This one's a tad bit late as it actually originates with a comment left all the way back in January. There's no good reason for the delay in bringing it to the front page, I've just been very lazy. Sorry! Anyway, Stew writes:

Sir, can you completely debunk the latest nonsense Fetzer's peddling here: <https://jamesfetzer.org/2019/12/alison-sunny-maynard-j-d-sandy-hook-no-burial-for-the-dead-boy/>

Sir? How fancy! Assuredly undeserved but thank you, Stew!

For those of you who would rather not subject yourselves to Jimmy Fetzer's putrid site, I'll summarize the nonsense in question:

SANDY HOOK ELEMENTARY WAS OPEN, PART SIXTEEN: SCHOOL DOCUMENTS FROM 2008-2012

by Shill Murray · 12 Comments

In what is very likely to be my final entry in this series (I really can't imagine, after nearly seven years, that there is much more out there for me to discover), I will be sharing various documents that I've found and collected over the years showing Sandy Hook Elementary School to be in continuous operation between 2008 and 2012. While some have already appeared on the site, the majority have not as they've just never really fit in anywhere. I have chosen not to share the nearly one hundred issues of the Sandy Hook Connection newsletter in my possession as they are rife with personal information such as the names and e-mail addresses of teachers and volunteers. WAS GENE ROSEN IDENTIFIED AS AN OFFICIAL FEMA EMPLOYEE?

by Shill Murray · 29 Comments

While Jim Fetzer has been thoroughly exposed as a shameless fraud more times than anyone cares to count, folks will still occasionally ask me to look into one of his many outrageous lies regarding Sandy Hook. And while I really have to wonder why anyone bothers to pay the guy any mind these days, I'll always make an effort to accommodate such requests as it is yet another opportunity to demonstrate what a total nitwit the guy is.

DID DANBURY HOSPITAL POST ABOUT THE SANDY HOOK SHOOTING 48 MINUTES BEFORE THE FIRST 911 CALL?

by Shill Murray · 20 Comments

Late last week, our old pal Jimmy Fetzer made the bizarre decision to resurrect a particularly birdbrained claim first published on Maria Hsia Chang's reprehensible "Fellowship of the Minds" back in January of last year. This claim, like many before it, originates with professional con man Wolfgang Halbig and posits that Danbury Hospital posted about the Sandy Hook shooting a full forty-eight minutes before the first 911 call had been received by Newtown Police, proving once and for all (for real this time!) that the event never happened and that Danbury Hospital – like literally everyone else on the planet, save for Wolfgang Halbig at this point – was "in on it". This is, predictably, absolute hooley.

WOLFGANG HALBIG'S COMPLICATED RELATIONSHIP WITH EXIF DATA

by Shill Murray · 51 Comments

In addition to being a bit of a moron, Wolfgang Halbig is also roughly one thousand years old, so it shouldn't come as much of a surprise that he... let's say struggles a bit with even the most basic technology. So when he attached the following image...

December 14, 2012, Newtown, Connecticut, United States: Twenty children died when a heavily armed man invaded Sandy Hook elementary school, killing his mother, a teacher, and spraying the school with bullets. The gunman, identified as Adam Lanza, 20, was killed inside of the school. 18 children died in the school and two more died later in a hospital. Six adults were also slain, bringing the total to 26. In addition to the casualties at the school, a body was also found in the shooter's home. He was armed with a Glock semi-automatic handgun and a Sig Sauer semi-automatic handgun. Additionally, 221 caliber shell casings—a rifle caliber—were also found at the scene. He was wearing a bullet-proof vest when he opened fire in the elementary school. Grieving families leaving the local fire house after they were briefed about the shooting. Down the road from the school grieving parents cry over death of the children as some fortunate ones are reunited with their child. The police and SWAT teams rans the grounds. ...to an e-mail regarding his Chalk Hill shenanigans, I had a few immediate thoughts/questions:

- 1) What in the holy hell does this have to do with Chalk Hill?
- 2) How in the world does this prove that Lenny Pozner is a "fictitious character"? My God, what a leap.
- 3) Of course Wolfgang Halbig does not understand Exif data. Because why would he?

SANDY HOOK STUDENTS WERE NOT MOVED TO CHALK HILL PRIOR TO JANUARY, 2013

by Shill Murray · 13 Comments

In spite of exposing himself as a desperate charlatan at every possible turn, a shocking number of people (i.e. more than zero) continue to give the outlandish claims of perennial wannabe Wolfgang Halbig the kind of reverence they've never deserved. Take for example one of his more recent tall tales: that all 456 students enrolled at Sandy Hook Elementary School for 2012-2013 were actually attending school one town over, at the site of the former Chalk Hill Middle School in Monroe, CT on December 14th, 2012 (rather than starting in January of 2013). Therefore, at least according to him, the shooting couldn't possibly have occurred as there were no children or educators physically located at Sandy Hook. Unsurprisingly, Halbig has thus far failed to explain how this new theory fits in with his previous allegation that the school was permanently closed in 2008 as Chalk Hill was still in use (at least as a school; it continued to house the Monroe Parks and Recreation department as well as Monroe Early Learning Center) by Monroe township up until 2011. Of course this isn't all that shocking as weaving his fever dreams into any kind of cohesive narrative has never been the guy's strong suit.

DID SANDY HOOK PARENT DAVID WHEELER PLAY AN FBI AGENT ON DECEMBER 14TH, 2012?

by Shill Murray · 84 Comments

"Congratulations, you found two middle-aged, jowly, white guys in Fairfield County, Connecticut. Remarkable!" – David Wheeler, CBS News interview, September 23, 2018

Certainly any sane, rational human being would struggle to choose the single most batshit insane component of the thoroughly preposterous and downright repulsive Sandy Hook hoax theory. There are simply too many to choose from, and they're all just so, so dumb. Here are just a couple of examples:

- It was a very real shooting, but carried out by "Mossad death squads." This is what "Nobody Died At Sandy Hook" author James Fetzer originally claimed in an article published on Russian propaganda site veteranstoday.com. Fetzer ultimately abandoned the idea, likely after realizing that it wasn't outrageous enough to flesh out into a full-length book.
- Adam Lanza never existed, and all photos of him are simply doctored photos of H.P. Lovecraft. That's a real one, I swear. You can Google it if you don't believe me.

For me, the profoundly stupid claim that some of the victims – or, as the story goes, some of the child actors who played them (before disappearing forever) – magically aged five years in two short months and then performed alongside Jennifer Hudson at Super Bowl XLVII is the clear-cut winner here. Hands down. The whole thing is just too bonkers, top to bottom. But coming in at a very close second is another absurdity that has a lot in common with the aforementioned Super Bowl babble (such as logical gaps so large that you could drive a couple of bucket-wheel excavators through them, side-by-side; a healthy dose of Prosopagnosia; and of course the nonsensical belief that the Obama administration, or whichever bogeyman is alleged to have been responsible for orchestrating such incredible theater, was able to rope hundreds if not thousands of people into their grand scheme, only to risk it all by re-using "actors" in different, prominent "roles"), and that is the claim that David Wheeler, father of six year-old victim Benjamin Wheeler, played the part of both grieving father and FBI Special Agent on the day of the shooting.
