BIDEN: The Epstein-Maxwell-Submarine-Island-BIDEN Connection

July 7, 2020 10:33 am by IWB

Sharing is Caring!

Rumors started swirling around shortly after Epstein's arrest that Maxwell was hiding out in a submarine. At the time, it was speculated that Epstein had built a submarine base/dock somewhere on his island as well ...

Prince Andrew's pal Ghislaine Maxwell 'could be hiding beneath sea in submarine'

The socialite and alleged "madam" for paedophile billionaire Jeffrey Epstein has a licence to pilot "submersible vehicles".

A forum on the Epstein scandal shows a diagram of his Little St James temple with water level calculations, which users say prove it is on top of a submarine bay.

It is accompanied by the message: “Ghislaine had a submarine licence. Coincidence, or is she hiding underwater, right under Jeff’s temple?”
Others say she could be in any ocean, given her lifelong passion for sea exploration.

After some time in custody, these rumors turned into intelligence reports that indeed there was a submarine base on the island directly under a structure he called a temple ...

Jeffrey Epstein’s alleged madam Ghislaine Mawell could be hiding in submarine

The 58-year-old, who is also friends with Prince Andrew, is facing growing pressure to talk to the FBI about claims she procured underage girls for Epstein.

Now it has emerged that the British former socialite has a licence to pilot “submersible vehicles”.

Investigators believe Epstein had a submarine dock built under a temple at his Little St James island in the Caribbean

Then I remembered an article I saw years ago about a real estate deal Biden's brother did. It involved buying an island. Turns out that island was Water Island and was used during World War II as a submarine base and Joe Biden has been confirmed to have vacationed there on several occasions ...

Lobbyist bought tropical land from Biden's brother

In 2005, Joe Biden's brother bought an acre of land with excellent ocean views on a remote island in the Caribbean for $150,000. He divided it into three parcels, and the next year a lobbyist close to the Delaware senator bought one of the parcels for what had been the cost of the entire property. Later, the lobbyist gave Biden's brother a mortgage loan on the remaining parcels.

After the land deal, Joe Biden vacationed elsewhere on the tiny island, which once protected a nearby submarine base before it became a tropical getaway, on at least three occasions.

Water Island is a 500-acre spit of land in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The Department of Defense purchased the island from a Danish company during World War II, using it to protect a submarine base on nearby St. Thomas. Since then, it has become an under-the-radar tropical getaway dotted with several-dozen homes, where the largest beachfront estates can fetch north of a million dollars.

So just for the heck of it I decided to locate both the islands to see how far apart they are. Epstein's island is located at 18°18'00.0"N, 64°49'30.0"W and Joe Biden's (Water Island) is located at 18°19'11.0"N, 64°57'12.0"W. Turns out the boat trip between the two is less than 9 miles (8.66 to be exact) ...
