

A Mystery to Myself:

(A really seriously tragic dramatic comedy).

In the span of eight years:

My father is elected Vice President of the United States.

I lose the entirety of my business.

I find a new way of doing business and replace most my income.

I relapse after 7 years of sobriety.

I go back to rehab.

The secret service follow me.